

14th Annual PrideWorks Conference for LGBTQ Youth and Their Allies

Friday, November 16, 2012
8:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.
DoubleTree Hotel - Tarrytown, NY

This conference is for and about lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and questioning (LGBTQ) youth, their straight allies, and the adults in their lives. It promotes a positive message and experience through interactive workshops and speakers. A light breakfast and lunch are included.

PrideWorks' mission is to inform our communities about the realities of growing LGBTQ, to inspire them to respect and support LGBTQ people and to advocate for positive change.

The Keynote Speaker will be Dale Guy Madison, an educator, writer, performance artist, filmmaker and former host for the QVC network.

The conference is organized by PFLAG Westchester (a chapter of the national Parents, Families and Friends of Lesbians and Gays), GLSEN Hudson Valley (a chapter of the national Gay, Lesbian and Straight Education Network) and Center Lane (drop in center for LGBTQ youth) - a program of Westchester Jewish Community Services.

PrideWorks is endorsed by the National Association of Social Workers, Westchester Division; New York Association of School Psychologists; New York State School Social Workers Association; New York State School Counselor Association, Westchester-Putnam School Boards Association; Putnam-Northern Westchester BOCES; Westchester – East Putnam PTA and The Hudson River Teacher Center.

Go to: www.PrideWorksForYouth.org to find out about Keynote Speaker, workshops and to register.

Cost is $100 for adults and $40 for all students.

Fees are higher after November 11, 2012. Limited partial scholarships are available.
